[This source has not been processed for the AW11 Kerala file because the essential materials contained in this paper are to be found in other sources by the author already incorporated into this file. It should be noted, however, that this source does contain data on Nayar marriage in Central Kerala, and a discussion by the author of the definition of marriage in general and of Nayar marriage in particular.]

[This volume is a collection and analysis of court cases in the district courts of Malabar by a judge of the High Court of Judicature at Madras. While it contains some material on the Nayar, it is only incidental to a discussion of Malabar law and custom in general. Therefore, this source has not been processed. --Analyst]
